

January 27, 2024

FROM: Bob Fahey & the Fire Officers

TO: Evansville Fire Board

RE: 2023 Annual Year end report

The Evansville Fire District presently have 39 Paid on call Firefighters as of December 31, 2023. We are very fortunate to have this number of Community members willing to serve the EFD at a moments notice to respond to calls, day and night, 365 days a year.

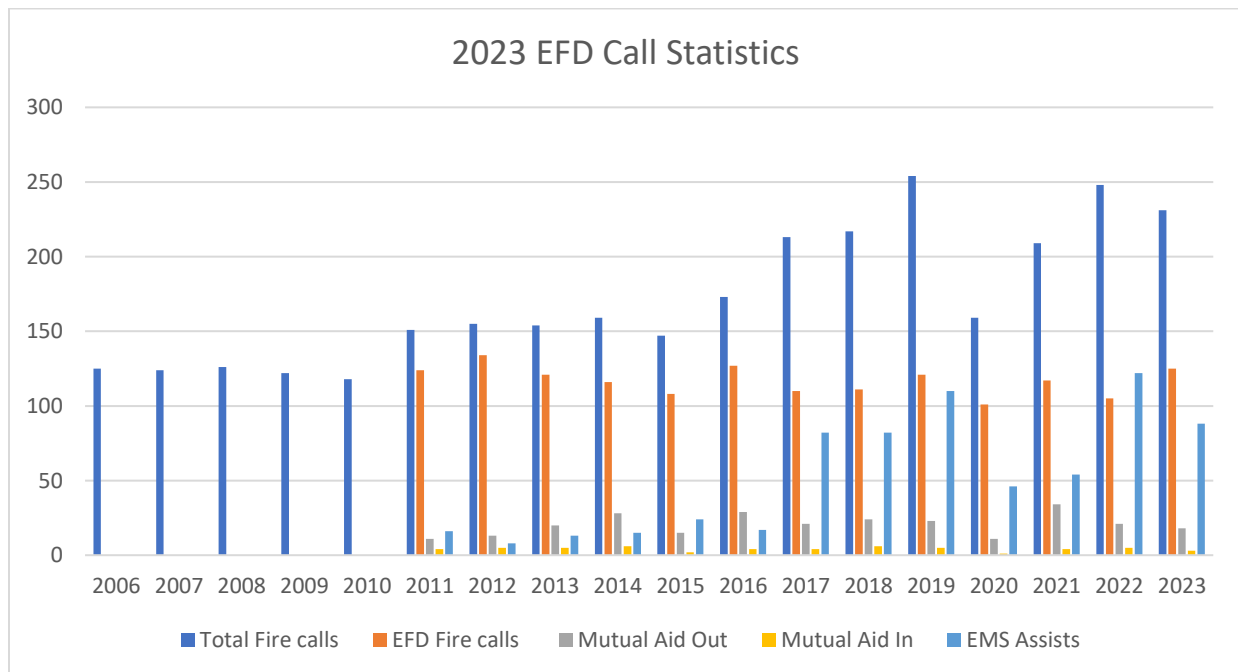

2023 Significant Fire Calls

- February 20, 2023 – Chemical/Hazmat Incident(Sulfur Dioxide) – Baker Manufacturing
- April 14, 2023 – Wheeler Rd - Shed Fire
- May 6, 2023 – Evans Drive - House Fire
- June 11, 2023 – N 6th St – House Fire

2023 Call statistics

- Average of 10.1 Firefighters responded to calls in 2023
- 231 total calls for Service
- 151 calls received from 6AM to 6PM
- 80 calls received from 6PM to 6AM
- 104 calls received on weekdays from 6AM to 6PM
- 32 Motor Vehicle accidents
- 6 Building Fires
- 3 Vehicle Fires
- 4 Grass/Brush types Fires
- 88 EMS Assists (40 were assisting Evansville EMS and 48 were assisting Mutual Aid Ambulances)

	Total Fire calls	EFD Fire calls	Mutual Aid Out	Mutual Aid In	EMS Assists
2006	125
2007	124
2008	126
2009	122
2010	118
2011	151	124	11	4	16
2012	155	134	13	5	8
2013	154	121	20	5	13
2014	159	116	28	6	15
2015	147	108	15	2	24
2016	173	127	29	4	17
2017	213	110	21	4	82
2018	217	111	24	6	82
2019	254	121	23	5	110
2020	159	101	11	1	46
2021	209	117	34	4	54
2022	248	105	21	5	122
2023	231	125	18	3	88

2022 Significant Fire Calls

- February 21, 2022 - Horse barn on Hwy A
- March 26, 2022 - Petes Inn Fire - Fire kept damage to attic area
- May 25, 2022 - Large commercial grain dryer fire - Alcivia Cooperative on Hwy M.

2022 Call statistics

- Average of 9.4 Firefighters responded to calls in 2022
- Total calls for Service - 248
- 175 calls received from 6AM to 6PM
- 73 calls received from 6PM to 6AM
- 105 calls received on weekdays from 6AM to 6PM
- 33 Motor Vehicle accidents
- 6 Building Fires
- 4 Vehicle Fires
- 6 Grass/Brush types Fires
- 122 EMS Assists (58 were assisting Evansville EMS and 64 were assisting Mutual Aid Ambulances)
-